

Downloading Adobe Digital Editions & Setting up Nook/eReader Devices

1. Make sure that your Nook or eReader device is set up and activated on your home computer or laptop. Then disconnect your Nook or eReader device from the computer.
2. Online; go to the North Webster Library website and click on the 'Overdrive/eIndiana Digital Consortium' link.
3. Click on 'My Account' and select your library from the drop down list. Enter your library card number; (a 14 digit number without spaces) and your pin number or password. (Enter the password if you've already used your library card number and pin number to set up your Evergreen Indiana library account online.)
4. 'My Account' will then appear. From here you can customize your settings, check your account, and view your holds.
5. To download and install the software you need click on 'Quick Start Guide' in the left hand toolbar.
6. For Nooks and eReaders you'll want to install Adobe Digital Editions. Click on the 'Adobe Digital Editions' icon and it takes you to the Adobe Installer site.
7. If you don't have an Adobe ID now is the time to get one! Click on 'Help' in the top toolbar. Scroll down and under the 'Help' heading click on 'Adobe ID or password help.' From there click on 'I Want To Update My Account Information.' Click on 'Sign In'. Click on 'Create an Adobe Account.' Follow the steps. (Note; if you already have an Adobe ID from setting up and initializing a Sony Reader or other eBook device, use that Username and Password rather than creating a new account.)
8. Once your account is created, go to the search box in the top right corner of the Adobe page you're on and type in 'Adobe Digital Editions'. Scroll down the screen and 'Launch' the Adobe Digital Editions Installer. Follow the steps and when it asks you for your Adobe ID, use the new username/email and password that you just created. Adobe Digital Editions should now be installed on your computer.
9. Now open Adobe Digital Editions from either your 'Start Menu' or 'Desktop Shortcut'. Once Adobe Digital Editions is open connect your Nook or eReader device to the computer with your USB cable. A message should pop up on your screen asking you to authorize the device. Click 'Yes' or 'Finish' to complete the set up and activation.

It is now possible to download eBooks on the Overdrive eIndiana Consortium site to your home computer or laptop! Adobe Digital Editions allows set up and licensing to six computers with your new Adobe ID. So if you have a laptop you can set up Adobe Digital Editions on it and download free eBooks from anywhere that you can get internet access!
