HAPPY RETIREMENT, KATHY!

The North Webster Library says a fond farewell to our long time staff member Kathy Rauguth. Kathy is retiring after 10 years of service. She joined the library staff in April 2007 as a circulation clerk and was promoted to circulation manager in 2009. In 2014 she accepted the position of Inter-Library Loan Specialist. In her most recent position, she was responsible for seeing that our patrons got the books they requested. Previous work experience includes working at a Christian bookstore, and serving as a sign language interpreter. Growing up in Wisconsin where she graduated from high school and attended college, Kathy has also lived in Michigan, Ohio, and California. She and husband Brad have lived in the North Webster area for 12 years. Her retirement plans include tackling lots of home projects and spending time with her four grandchildren. Kathy will be missed by both patrons and staff, and we wish her the best in her well-deserved retirement.
