MEMORIAL BOOKS CREATE A LASTING LEGACY

Looking for a lasting legacy to honor a loved one or special person in your life? Want to give a lasting gift for a special occasion? Consider donating one or more memorial books to the library. The library staff will help you select and purchase appropriate books to honor your loved one. You can donate adult or children's books. Each book will have a bookplate placed in the front dedicating it in memory or honor of your special person. It's a meaningful way to celebrate someone's life or mark an important milestone. While flowers soon wilt, memorial books have lasting value that benefit others for years to come. For more information about donating memorial books, contact Adult Services Director Beth Smith or Youth Services Librarian Pam Long.

In case of bad weather, library closings will be announced on radio stations WILLIE 103.5 FM & WRSW 102.7 FM, TV stations WNDU & WSBT & posted on Facebook and Inkfreenews.com. Text Club members will receive text notification.

Celebrate St. Patrick's Day with A Taste of Ireland

On St. Patrick's Day, everyone is Irish, so celebrate with A Taste of Ireland on Saturday, March 17, 5:00-7:00 in the North Webster Community Center Banquet Hall. Sample traditional Irish food, dance an Irish jig, learn about Irish history, and experience the richness of Irish culture. It's a fun and educational event the whole family will enjoy. Tickets cost $9 and must be purchased in advance from Adult Services Director Beth Smith or any Friends of the Library member. There will be no ticket sales at the door. So don some green and celebrate everything Irish. You'll leave with your Irish eyes smiling!

Enjoy a Night of Fun and Laughs at Comedy Improv Night

Enjoy a night of laughs and good clean fun when Main on Main Comedy Improv Troupe performs their hilarious routines on Friday, March 2, at 7:00 p.m. in the North Webster Community Center Banquet Hall. Comedy improv is a form of live theater in which the players make up the story line as they go along, often taking suggestions from the audience. The result is uproarious fun. Main on Main is a local troupe composed of Ian Crighton, Beth Smith, Todd Lucas, Katie Macke, Katie Anders, Stephen Leininger, and Nick Salsas. Their style of humor is clean, funny, and suitable for the whole family. Sponsored by the North Webster Library, the event is free and open to the public. Goodwill donations will be accepted to help the troupe cover expenses.

Ladies Drum Circle

De-stress and rejuvenate with meditative drumming the first Wednesday each month at 6:00 p.m. Ladies Drum Circle is accepting new members at its March 7 session, then will close to new enrollments. Sign up at the Circulation Desk and experience the therapeutic benefits of meditative drumming.

Learn to Create Beautiful Stained Glass Art

Stained glass artist John Miretti will share his passion for stained glass art when he conducts a special hands-on Stained Glass Workshop at the library on Wednesday, March 14, 1:00-5:00. With John's expert instruction, participants will create their own 6"x 8" finished stained glass art piece. John holds a bachelor of science degree in art from Indiana Wesleyan University, completing over 100 stained glass windows and teaching dozens of individuals the process of stained glass making. The workshop costs $10 and covers all your materials. Advance registration is required with the non-refundable payment due when registering. Enrollment will be very limited, so don't delay in signing up to reserve your spot.

Beginning Genealogy Course Offered in March

Did you ever wonder about your family heritage? Where did your ancestors come from and how did they get here? Enroll in the Beginning Genealogy Course and learn how to research your ancestral roots. This 4-class course is held at 1:00 on Thursdays, March 1, 8, 15 & 22. You will learn how to find information online and in libraries and courthouses, research techniques, how to organize your research, terminology, and much more. The course is free, but advance registration is required. Sign up at the Circulation Desk or call 574-834-7122.

Genealogy All Day Long in the LH&GC

If you love genealogy, come to the library to share your passion and knowledge. The Local History and Genealogy Center will host an All Day Genealogy session on Monday, March 6. Genealogists are encouraged to bring their laptops and share their genealogy website subscriptions and other resources with fellow genealogists. By sharing resources and research ideas, you might discover new information to add to your family history. The center's computers and free subscriptions will also be available along with our collection of historic records, family and local histories, and how-to books. Come for a while or stay the whole day. Bring snacks to share!

TEEN BOOK REVIEW

Loki's Wolves* (The Blackwell Pages #1)
by K.L. Armstrong & M.A. Marr

In the South Dakota town of Blackwell, the Norse myths are taught in school, and some townfolk take them a little too seriously. That's because many of the town's residents are, in fact, ancestors to those Norse gods and goddesses. Just ask Matt Thorsen or Fen Brekke, who are descended from Thor and Loki. World events, chiefly natural disasters, have the town council, dominated by the Thorsen family, convinced that Ragnarok - i.e. the end of the world - is coming. One day during the winter festival of Vetrarblot, Matt overhears the town council making plans to select a champion who will re-enact the events of Ragnarok. Matt is floored when he hears his name chosen and panics when he remembers how things played out for the mythical gods - they lost! Can Matt, Fen, and Fen's cousin Laurie gather the other descendants and change the outcome this time? Will they fail like the gods did originally? In the first of a trilogy, readers are taken on a fast paced journey and get some lessons in Norse mythology in the bargain. Fans of Rick Riordan's mythology based series will enjoy this trilogy.
